

Disclaimer

1. Contents of the online offer

The author does not presume any liability for the actuality, the correctness, completeness or quality of the provided information. Liability claims regarding damage caused by the use of any information provided, including any kind of information which is incomplete or incorrect, will therefore be rejected, as far as on part of the author no deliberate or culpable negligence being to blame for is present. All offers are non-binding and without any obligation. Parts of the pages or the complete publication including all offers and information might be extended, changed or partly deleted by the author without separate announcement.

2. Referrals and links

In case of direct or indirect referrals to external web sides ("hyperlinks"), which are not within the area of responsibility of the author, a liability obligation could only be implemented in cases, in which the author is aware of the content and it would technically be possible and reasonable for him to prevent the use in case of illegal contents.

Hereby the author explains explicitly that at the time of the link setting no illegal contents on the pages to be linked were recognizable. The author does not have any influence on the current and future design, contents or the copyright of the linked pages. Therefore he dissociates himself hereby explicitly from the contents of all linked pages, which were changed after the link setting. This statement applies to all links and referrals set within the own Internet publication as well as to foreign entries in guest books provided by the author, discussion boards, link listings, mailing lists and in all other forms of data bases, where external writing accesses are possible. For illegal, incorrect or incomplete contents and in particular damage, which occurs due to the use or non-use of such information, only the provider of that page, which was referred to, will be liable and not the person just referring to the respective publication via links.
